IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICITON

NOTICE OF MOTION NO.2610 OF 2005
IN
INCOME TAX APPEAL (L) NO.1061 OF 2005

The Commissioner of Income Tax .. Applicant.

Versus

M/s.Geoffrey Manners & Co. Ltd. .. Respondent.

Mr.A.D. Kango for the applicant.

Mr.S.M. Shah with Mr.Rajesh Shah for the respondent.

CORAM : F.I. REBELLO &
J.P. DEVADHAR, JJ.

DATED : 28th AUGUST, 2007.

P.C. :

1. The delay is of 259 days. In the affidavit in support, cause shown is delay in the Ministry of Law and thereafter for want of stamp papers. No reply has been filed on behalf of the respondent contesting said affidavit.

2. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, cause shown, in our opinion, would amount to sufficient cause. Hence, delay condoned. Notice of motion is made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a).

3. Office to register the appeal.
